

American Wine Society® Privacy Policy

The American Wine Society is committed to protecting the online privacy of its members and visitors to its website. We believe that greater protection of personal privacy on the Web will not only protect consumers, but also increase consumer confidence and ultimately their participation in online activities. At the American Wine Society, we intend to give you as much control as possible over your personal information.

Personal Information- The American Wine Society will not collect any personally identifiable information about you (name, address, telephone number, email address) unless you provide it to us voluntarily. If you do not want your personal information collected, please do not submit it.

Submissions - All questions, remarks, suggestions, ideas, graphics or other information communicated to the American Wine Society will become the property of the American Wine Society. The American Wine Society shall have no obligation to treat any submission as confidential and will not be liable for any ideas for its businesses, including but not limited to product or advertising ideas, and will not incur any liability as a result of any similarities that may appear in future American Wine Society operations. The American Wine Society will be entitled to use any submission for any commercial or other purpose whatsoever, without compensating you or any other person sending the submission. You acknowledge that you are responsible for any submission you make and that you, and not the American Wine Society, have full responsibility for the message, including its legality, reliability, appropriateness, originality and copyright.
